

OUTSIDE NEWS FROM WIRE AND CABLE

New York.—Liner Vaterland, largest steamer afloat, reached New York on maiden trip today. Trouble in warping her into slip because of size. Has crew of 1,234 men.

Tappan, N. Y.—Clyde Hotelling, West Shore Ry., agent at Haverstraw, shot and killed by robbers in station. Was killed while phoning for help.

New York.—T. Roosevelt, explorer, put on a white collar today and returned to the Outlook office as contributing editor. Still claims his river is a real affair.

Winchester, Ind.—Harvey and Thomas Johnson killed when they drove rig onto interurban trestle and were struck by car.

Parsons, Kan.—M., K. & T. fast train ran into Frisco passenger train here, injuring four persons.

Bloomington, Ill.—Eston Spencer, 35, Saybrook, Ill., found dead in negro opium joint with revolver in hand. Acute alcoholism. Second death from alcoholism since saloons were banished.

Springfield, Mo.—Twins thrive here. School census shows 58 sets.

Sidney, N. S.—Masked burglars held up auction bridge party and got away with $2,000.

Des Moines, Ia.—Chas. W. Shull, 42, manager Des Moines Construction Co., plazed muzzle of revolver in his mouth. Bullet missed vital point. Will recover. Family troubles.

Tulsa, Okla.—Douglas Rowe, negro outlaw who shot Detective Ed Rice while resisting arrest, captured.

Frankfort, Ind.—General offices of Clover Leaf Railway destroyed by fire caused by defective flue. Loss $75,000.

Aldershot, Eng.—A brush fire believed started by suffragets encircled royal palace where King George and Queen Mary are in residence.

London.—Out of 750 English girl candidates for the beauty chorus at the Empire, only 9 selected and they were only "passable," according to Manager Butt.

Des Moines, Ia.—J. L. Love, Oskalooge, Ia., head of Central American Developing Co., in jail on charge of cheating by false pretenses. Twenty prominent Des Moines men say they are victims.

Washington.—Application for pardon of 24 convicted dynamiters now in hands of Pardon Attorney Finch of Department of Justice.

Berlin.—Almost a riot marked close of session of reichstag when Socialists remained seated during time-honored "Hoch der Kaiser."

New York.—Keith Stewart, cashier for brokerage firm, fell dead while laughing at a joke.

Washington.—"General" Coxey's army, consisting of six privates, reached here yesterday.

Topeka, Kan.—Rocking chairs placed near front of Auditorium of North Topeka Baptist Church to coax out old folks.

Washington.—Lillian Scheuch swallowed 90 grains of bichloride of mercury. Physicians say she will recover.

Washington.—Convention Hall, largest here, will be hired for Col. Roosevelt's lecture Tuesday on South American exploration feats.

MAN KILLS BOY AND SELF

Orville Magnus, 7, son of wealthy Aurora parents, was found dead with his throat cut from ear to ear in the basement of the home of Chas. Redeanz, Elgin, Ill., today. Nearby the body of Chas. Lawler, photographer, was found. He had killed himself by poison.

The police believed the man murdered the boy and then committed suicide.

Three good laughs an hour, three square meals and three hours' work outdoors every day is prescribed by Mrs. Thomas Bennett of Brooklyn, N. Y., for long life. She is 102.